

It's 23 miles to Detroit, we got a full
tank of gas,
a sack lunch,
it's summer...
and we're wearing matching t-shirts.

Hit it!

Middle School
Service Week
2013

The Mission

June 24– June 27, 2013

MSSW is week of faith-filled service for youth who completed 6th-8th grade.

This week you will:

- Make new friends and hang out with your old ones too!
- Learn how God can use YOU to help others.
- Help address the problem of hunger in Detroit.

What does it cost?

- It only costs $20.00 per youth thanks to generous support from the congregation and the spring bake sale.
- Scholarships are available, please see Mandy McNeil.

What do I wear? Closed toes shoes, ready-to-work clothing, and your MSSW T-shirt

Registration Deadline: Please register ASAP so we can make sure we have enough drivers etc.

DEADLINE: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12

Parents: Chaperones may be needed to drive and assist in the program activities. Contact Mandy to volunteer.

Questions? Please e-mail Mandy at Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 8:30am– 2:00pm. Wear your MSSW T-shirt, bring a sack lunch, and a water bottle every day and meet us in Park Place each morning.

Each day we will be headed to different ministries in Detroit that address hunger (Gleaners, Capuchin Soup Kitchen/ Earthworks).

Thursday, June 27 10:30am-4:00pm

After a week of work you will be treated to a day of fun!

Lunch will be provided.

Bring your swim suit, towel, and sunscreen
